Pastor's Note

We have the power in our tongue to build people up or tear them down. Let's use that power for the good and discover the tremendous power of encouragement.

Do you remember that old cowboy song called

"Home on the Range"?

One of the lines says,

"Where seldom is heard a discouraging word."

What a powerful statement that is if you really think about it. Imagine what life would be like without discouraging words.

People would be free to chase after their dreams without being shot down by negative bystanders.

I've Been Changed
 Well, I've been to the river, I've been baptized.
 I've been washed in the blood of the Lamb.
 I've been changed from the creature that once I was
 And redeemed is now my name.
 Cho: I've been changed, I'm newborn now,
 All my life has been rearranged.
 What a difference it made
 When the Lord came and stayed in my heart
 Oh, yes, I've been changed.

Though my sins were as scarlet, they're white as snow.
 I was bound, but today I am free.
 I was lost in the darkness, but now am found.
 I was blind, but now I see.
 Cho:

Like the poor Hebrew children, I wandered long.
 In a bare desert land to and fro.
 But I've crossed over Jordan to Canaan's land
 Where the milk and honey flow.
 When at last in His presence, I stand above.
 He will wipe all the tears from my eyes.
 And I'll thank Him for giving a wretch like me
 Lasting Hope beyond the skies.
 Cho:
